PUBLISHER'S NOTE

year of publication. Over the past six years, Fourwall Magazine has strived to contribute to the growth of modeling in Nigeria by promoting models, pageantry, as well as by both domestic and international models. By any measurable standard, our magazine has been successful: we have seen a steady increase in readership, article submissions, and citations to our published articles. However, we have also grown in less quantifiable ways: our reputation and visibility in the modelingcommunity continues to broaden.

It is due to the support of our sponsors, the hard work of our editorial staff, and the interest of our readers that we are able to celebrate our sixth-year anniversary, and we hope that this tripartite support continues in the future.

With this Edition of Fourwall Magazine, we celebrate the sixth anniversary of Fourwall Magazine. I want to thank many individuals, brands, models for their support of the past six years. We therefore express our gratitude to you all for being there for us and encourage you to continue your patronage, because it can only and will get better.

10 TYPES OF FASHION MODELS

Modeling is a competitive industry that requires dedication and perseverance. Breaking into the modeling market can be hard but doable. To become a professional model, it's essential to learn the necessary requirements of the job.

WHAT DOES A MODEL DO?

A model works with consumer brands, fashion designers, photographers, and artists to advertise a wide array of products. Consumer brands hire models to wear fashionable clothing in magazines, on runways, or to model cosmetic products. Models work with stylists and makeup artists crafting their clothing, hairstyles, and appearance, but they are ultimately responsible for how they portray their look in front of the camera.

THERE ARE TEN BASIC TYPES OF MODELS IN THE FASHION WORLD. EACH TYPE OF MODELING HAS ITS OWN SET OF REQUIREMENTS:

EDITORIAL MODELS: These models often appear in fashion magazines, wearing the latest designs from a particular fashion designer or clothing brand. Editorial models pose for fashion photographers during photoshoots, taking direction, and following their own artistic instinct to help capture the perfect image. Female models are categorized by their height and measurements, and are typically 5 feet, 9 inches or taller and slim. Male models are categorized by their height and measurements, and are typically around 6 feet tall and slim.

RUNWAY MODELS: These models walk the catwalk during fashion shows, displaying carefully curated ensembles for audiences that set the current tone or upcoming trends for the fashion world. All runway models are categorized by their height and measurements, and are typically over 5 feet, 9 inches and slim.

PLUS-SIZE MODELS: In the fashion modeling industry, models who are larger than the editorial standard are considered full-figured or curvy. They primarily model plus-size clothing designs.

PARTS MODELS: Parts models only model a specific body part in product photography. For example, they may use their hands to model a new nail polish, or their feet to advertise a new sandal. Parts models must take special care of their coveted feature to ensure it stays in optimal condition.

FITNESS MODELS: Maintaining peak physical fitness is a major requirement for fitness models. These models exercise regularly, creating a toned and muscular physique. Fitness models usually appear in magazines, advertising supplements, workout attire, or gym facilities.

GLAMOUR MODELS: Glamour models are usually hired based on their appearance and sexual appeal. Brands and photographers hire glamour models to appear in certain magazines, calendars, and music videos.

LINGERIE MODELS: Lingerie models pose in brassieres and underwear for photoshoots, catalogs, and magazines. These models also work the runway to show off the latest undergarment fashion for lingerie brands and designers.

SWIMSUIT MODELS: Swimsuit models pose in bathing suits, showing off the latest in summer swimwear. The magazine Sports Illustrated is most known for its athletic swimsuit model features.

PROMOTIONAL MODELS: Brands hire this type of model to market their products and services. Brands hire promotional models, commonly known as influencers, to promote their products and services to their target audiences.

CATALOG MODELS: Companies hire these commercial models for their relatable image. This type of modeling has more flexibility in terms of appearance. Catalogs typically feature models who look like everyday people, rather than runway-ready supermodels. This type of commercial modeling includes mainstream retail clothing, and products that are more accessible to general consumers.

TELL US ABOUT YOURSELF?

I am a model, writer, Presenter, and recently got my PMP certification. I love travelling, meeting people, planning and basking in the beauty of execution.

HOW DOES IT FEEL TO WIN THE NIGERIAN QUEEN PAGEANT? HAS THE FEELING SUNK IN YET?

Like I always say, I can't put the feelings into words and it's taking me a moment to absorb that I was able to achieve this. For a long time, it has been a dream that seemed a mirage but now it's my reality and I can't be happier.

WHAT WAS THE FIRST THOUGHT THAT CAME TO YOUR MIND WHEN THEY ANNOUNCED YOUR NAME AS THE WINNER?

That finally! Finally. Unbelievable but I did it. I can't wait to get started, I can't wait to show the world what I can achieve with this opportunity. can I get started now...? These and many more rushed through my mind.

HOW DID YOUR FRIENDS AND FAMILY MEMBERS REACT TO YOUR VICTORY?

I dare say they were more excited about it than I was, which should be impossible. Because the doubts and warnings before the contest were also coming from those quarters.

IN YOUR WORDS, WHAT DO YOU THINK STOOD YOU OUT FROM THE OTHER CONTESTANTS?

This is a question I find hard to answer because it would be that in some way the other contestants were lacking, which I don't believe was the case. So I would say that it's not so much that one thing made me stand out but that all of my efforts, preparedness, determination, brought me to that hour, it was my time, my moment, my crown.

ALL THE FINALISTS STAYED TOGETHER IN A CAMP, HOW WAS THE BONDING WITH OTHER GIRLS? MADE ANY FRIENDS?

The first couple of days was hard for me, it seemed nothing was going as planned. I could not relate with any of the girls as freely as I normally would. I was tense and confused. But then I had the best roommates at camp, Miss Taraba, and Miss Bauchi, amazing humans and strong ladies with a lot of determination. I could not but ease into their energy as we shared that in common.

In later days I made better acquaintance

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH
QUEEN ABIMBOLA
RITA ABAYOMI
THE NIGERIAN QUEEN WINNER

with other girls, Miss Abia, Miss Abuja, Miss Kano, Miss Ogun, etc and I can say they were the best girls/sisters one would have shared the experience with.

WHO WAS YOUR BIGGEST COMPETITION IN THE NIGERIAN QUEEN PAGEANT?

In truth I was competing against myself, my doubts, my fears, my restrictions, my past, my hopes for my future, and a lot of other personal things, I had to dare, so the contest was very much internalized for me. But some contestants stood out for me in preparedness, Miss Taraba, Miss Edo and Miss Ebonyi were three contestants I viewed with so much promise and I may have rooted for if I was not a contestant.

HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN IN THE MODELLING INDUSTRY?

I have been in the modelling industry for over 10yrs, wowwww, that calculation just happened. Modelling has always been a part of my life, a passion that has never left. What a journey it has been so far, I don't plan on stopping anytime soon.

TELL US ABOUT THE EXPERIENCE SINCE YOU WERE CROWNED?

It has been an emotional ride, to be honest. It's been eye-opening and surreal at the same time. It's like being adopted into a new family where it's all about what you want, how you want it if it's best for you and how to grow in your skin. The focus on me is new, intense, powerful and I am enjoying every bit of it.

HOW HAS WINNING THIS CROWN CHANGED YOUR LIFE?

I would say it has given me a greater platform and helped me to begin on a journey to being much more fulfilled in my endeavors.

HOW DO YOU INTEND TO USE THIS NEW OFFICE TO MAKE AN IMPACT ON SOCIETY?

I would like to use this platform to restore, in my way, the dignity of the everyday Nigerian, promoting humanity and the importance of building an inclusive society to do this. I believe more than ever the world needs people who can teach it, once again, the importance of being kind and respecting the humanity of others in our immediate environment. I believe it would go a long way to bring unity and peace to our state again.

IF YOU WERE NOT A MODEL, WHAT OTHER CAREER WOULD YOU HAVE PURSUED?

I am already pursuing it, to be a presenter and communications expert.

WHO IS YOUR ROLE MODEL?

I don't have 1, I learn from the life and experiences of a lot of people in different fields, from the creative to the political. Men and women alike. But if I must mention persons, let it be two, they would be Ellen DeGeneres and Oprah Winfrey. I love how they use their platforms to better the lives of everyday people.

WHAT SHOULD PEOPLE EXPECT FROM QUEEN ABIMBOLA?

Its Queen AIRA, AbimbolaIslamiat Rita Abayomi and I hope to be the Unforgettable Queen.

WHICH BRANDS ARE YOU LOOKING FORWARD TO WORKING WITH?

Brands in fashion and style, homegrown and international, I would love to be a major promoter of our African fashion brands. Brands that are also open to exploring my personality and creativity. Also, businesses and organizations are interested in building a better society beyond charity.

LASTLY, ANY MESSAGE TO ALL THE ASPIRING GIRLS WHO DREAM OF BEING THE NIGERIAN QUEEN?

If you can dream it you can achieve it, but most importantly, if you want it enough you should be ready to understand it's a responsibility and act accordingly.

QUEEN JOY
UYO OMANIBE
THE NIGERIAN QUEEN 1ST RUNNER UP

TELL US ABOUT YOURSELF?

My name is Joy Omanibe. I'm from Kogi state. A graduate of business administration from Houdegbe North American University, Benin republic. I'm the 4th child from a family of 5 children and I come from a Christian home.

HOW DOES EMERGING 1ST RUNNER UP OF NIGERIAN QUEEN MAKE YOU FEEL?

Emerging the 1st runner up of Nigerian Queen has given me a sense of fulfilment and achievement. Becoming a Beauty queen has been my childhood dream ever since AgbaniDarego won the Miss World beauty contest in 2001. I wanted to see myself in the same light and feel the same glory. Emerging 1st runner up of Nigerian Queen and getting the chance to represent Nigeria at Miss. Eco International has made me realize that dreams do come true and I'm grateful to God for that.

WHAT WAS YOUR BIGGEST CHALLENGE COMPETING IN A PAGEANT?

My biggest challenge competing in the pageant was the fact that I had to multitask. Sometimes I lose focus because I'm doing a lot of things at the same time and being a business owner, trying to run it and competing in a tough pageant-like "The Nigerian Queen" at the same time was one of my biggest challenges.

HOW WAS THE CAMPING EXPERIENCE?

My camping experience was so much fun. It was filled with lots of activities and adventures. I learned new things, getting to know and bond with other beautiful contestants.

DID YOU FEEL YOU HAD THE CHANCE OF WINNING AFTER YOU SAW THE OTHER CONTESTANTS?

Honestly, I had a little doubt because all the contestants brought their A-game and were not trying to make it easy for anyone at all. Every competition was a fierce battle, but there was no backing down for me. I would say consistency was the one thing that kept me going all through the contest, and in the end, I'm glad it paid off.

HOW HAVE YOU BEEN COPING WITH THE TASK OF BEING A QUEEN, KNOWING WHAT IS BEING EXPECTED OF YOU?

Honestly, it has not been easy at all, it takes a lot of energy, hard work and courage to be a queen. As they say "To whom much is given, much is expected". I've learnt a lot during my journey so far, like how to be prompt and keep to time, some skin routines to maintain healthy and glowing skin, I read a lot to improve on the act of public speaking and boost my social grace. Thanks to My amazing organization for their continuous guidance and support, I don't know what I would have done without them.

WHAT ARE THE PROJECTS YOU'VE EMBARKED ON OR ARE STILL ONGOING SINCE YOU'VE BECOME A QUEEN?

I have a passion for education and I have embarked on some projects targeted at providing learning materials like books, pens, sandals, school bags and uniforms for children in some rural areas. I also have an ongoing project tagged "OPPORTUNITY FOR ALL" which is aimed at providing ICT access and training to teenagers and youths in rural communities in Nigeria who can't afford vocational/ basic education due to poor background, further give them the future they desire. I'm also embarking on a "RECYCLING PROGRAM" as my project for Miss Eco International Contest coming up in Egypt.

WHAT IS YOUR ULTIMATE AIM IN LIFE?

My ultimate aim in life is to set goals and achieve them. For me, without setting goals each day, week, month and year, it will be very difficult to achieve success in life. Goals are necessary to our fulfilment as human beings. They are the ultimate manifestation of who we are and who we want to become in life. I've set a goal to put a smile on the faces of people I come across especially children through my pet projects and by the grace of God, I'm achieving this goal one day at a time.

IF YOU WERE NOT MODELING, WHAT WOULD YOU BE DOING?

I love music, so If I wasn't modelling I would be a musician. For me music is life, it gives healing to the soul.

WHICH BRANDS ARE YOU LOOKING FORWARD TO WORKING WITH?

I'm looking forward to working with brands such as skincare/cosmetic brands, makeup brands, clothing/fashion brands, food brands and electronic brands.

WHERE DO YOU SEE YOURSELF IN THE NEXT 5 YEARS?

I see myself in the next 5 years running my successful businesses, setting my schedule. I would love to be a creative homeowner, married with at least 2 kids.

THERE ARE SOME GIRLS OUT THERE LOOKING TO BE LIKE YOU, CAN YOU GIVE THEM TIPS ON HOW TO BE A BEAUTY QUEEN?

What I want to say to the girls looking up to me is that: dreams do come true and it takes hard work, dedication, resilience, confidence and prayer to achieve them. I also want to tell them to always stay focus and believe in themselves regardless of what challenge(s) they face because nothing good comes easy.

TELL US ABOUT YOURSELF?

My name is Patience Idowochenema Christopher, I'm an educationist, a fashion model and a beauty entrepreneur from Kogi State, Nigeria. I am passionate about children, women and the differently-able persons in our society. My dream is to help build a world where everyone is given the platform to express their God-given talent regardless of their physical abilities. I love to sing, travel and volunteer for humanitarian courses.

HOW DO YOU FEEL EMERGING AS THE 2ND RUNNER UP OF THE NIGERIA QUEEN?

I feel blessed and grateful. It's so fulfilling to see that your hard work is being recognized and rewarded.

WHAT WAS YOUR BIGGEST CHALLENGE COMPETING IN THE PAGEANT?

My biggest challenge was funding but thanks to my ever-supportive family and friends who came through for me to the very end.

WHO WAS YOUR BIGGEST COMPETITION IN THE NIGERIAN QUEEN PAGEANT?

FOURWALL MAGAZINE | +234 706 2445 649

Well, that would be me, my biggest competition was myself. There were moments I lost confidence in my abilities and felt like throwing in the towel. I was not sure what I was doing, and if I was doing it right. The rehearsals, interviews, competitions and everything in-between, but at a time I had to tell that negative committee in my head to shut up. lol

HOW HAS WINNING THIS CROWN CHANGED YOUR LIFE?

In so many ways, aside from the cash prize, it has given me influence and exposure. I'm so grateful for the platform

HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN IN THE MODELLING INDUSTRY?

I have been in the modelling industry for 8 years now. It's one thing I'm very passionate about, God willing, I hope to make my mark; never to be defaced.

TELL US 5 FACTS PEOPLE DON'T KNOW ABOUT YOU?

- I have a fraternal twin sister called Peace.
- I'm a songwriter and an occasional sensational poet.
- I'm chronically left-handed
- I have a beautiful singing voice
- I'm a foodie but most people argue that because of my slender nature (I like to eat round the clock lol)

HOW ARE YOU PREPARING FOR THE MISS GRAND INTERNATIONAL PAGEANT?

Preparations are in top gear and going smoothly. I practically sleep in 3 places now; catwalk studio, gym and in front of my TV while watching BBC catch on the happenings in the world. I have become a voracious reader now as well, and I pray a lot too, that I bring the crown home. Many people are rooting for me, they deserve a good representation, and I can't let them down, so I'm giving in my best.

IF YOU COULD CHANGE ONE THING IN THE MODELLING INDUSTRY, WHAT WOULD THAT BE?

The Modelling industry like every other industry is marked by discrimination and biases of all forms, if I could I will purge it of these cancerous elements. Everyone should be given a fair opportunity to showcase themselves, regardless of their background and connections. Talent and skillset should be prioritized above everything else.

WHICH BRANDS ARE YOU LOOKING FORWARD TO WORKING WITH?

I look forward to working with good fashion, entertainment and cosmetics brands within and outside Nigeria. If I am asked to make a list of the top 5 brands I look forward to working within the nearest future, that would be;

- Victoria Secrets
- Ivy Park
- Fenty
- Mai Atafo
- DeolaSagoe

WHERE DO YOU SEE YOURSELF IN THE NEXT 5 YEARS?

I see myself using my platform and beauty brand to empower the youths and being a voice to the differently-able persons in our society, and of course, with a beautiful family by my side.

TELL US ABOUT YOURSELF?

My name is OkekeSoludo Marcel, I am a lawyer, runway/commercial model, actor etc. I was recently crowned as a pageant king with the title of Mister Model Nigeria. I have been blessed to have worked for big brands and juggernauts in the fashion world and beauty line. i.e. Taryor Gabriel, ILI, I.N Official, Tokyo James to mention but a few. I have also graced the runways of major fashion shows in Nigeria. i.e. GT fashion week, Lagos fashion week to mention but a few. I am currently the face of juggernaut beauty brand, Essenza. Besides modelling, I am also social media manager and the creative director of a media agency and also a member of BFET a foundation, that caters to the needs of elderly people and also orphanage homes. Marcel in general is a very determined person and strives to always add value to people around him and the society at large as much possible.

HOW DOES IT FEEL WINNING MISTER MODEL NIGERIA PAGEANT?

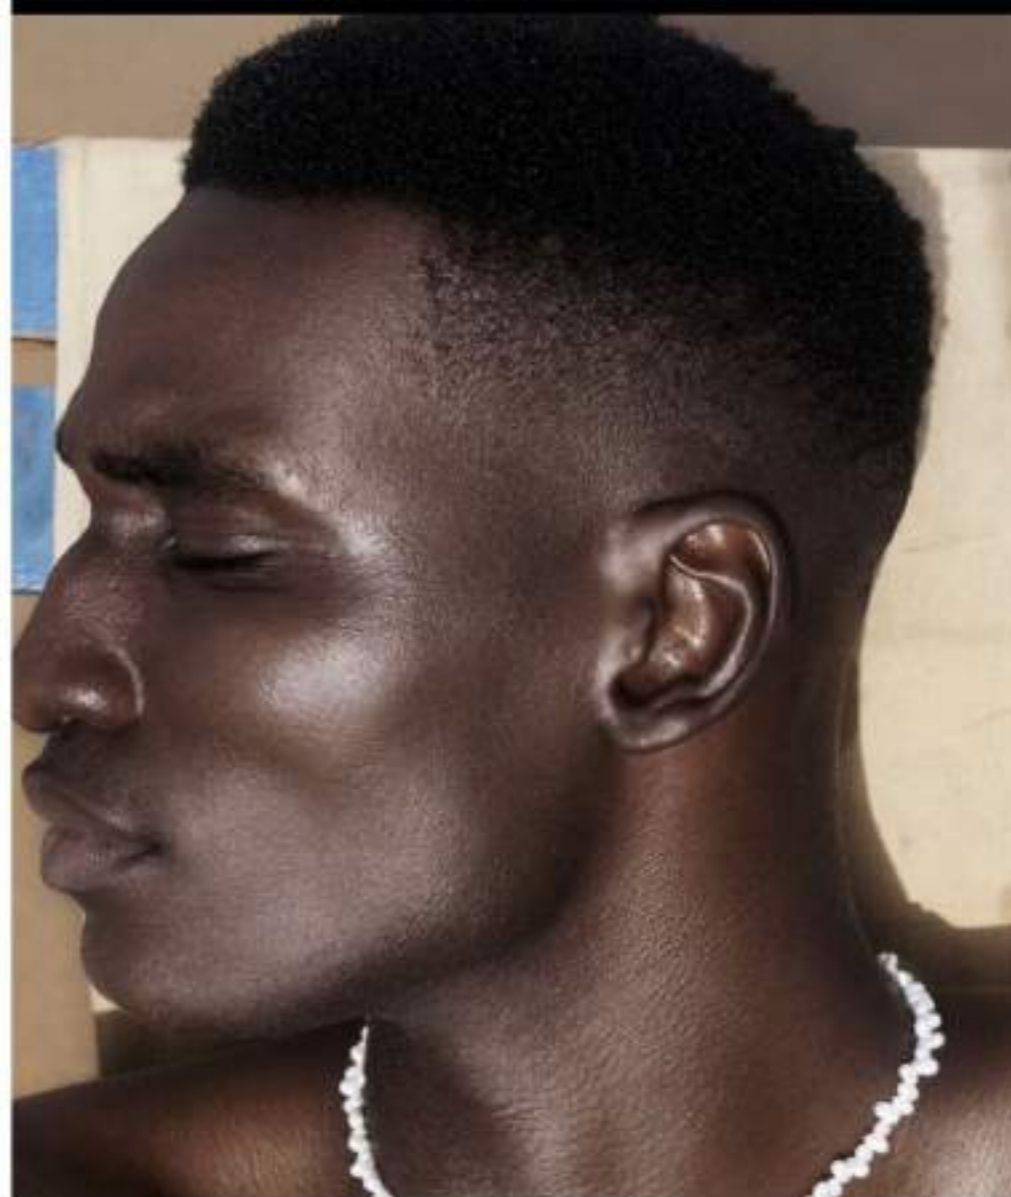

Winning the title as Mister Model Nigeria has been an amazing journey. It has definitely exposed me to a whole lot; career wise I have been able to work with a lot of people I respect and admire their works. Winning the title has also made me think, act and react to situations, challenges like a king would and should do I am always grateful to be here in all honesty.

WHAT WAS THE FIRST THOUGHT THAT CAME TO YOUR MIND WHEN THEY ANNOUNCED YOUR NAME AS THE WINNER?

It was a mix of different feelings. First off I was super excited as I know how tasking the competition had been. To emerge the winner, I really felt good, I must say my fellow contestants didn't make it easy at any point in time, it wasn't a walk in the park. I must say I was nervous on that day but felt comfortable when I was declared the winner. It was a thrilling experience indeed.

HOW DID YOUR FRIENDS AND FAMILY MEMBERS REACT TO YOUR VICTORY?

My family have been a major source of strength for me in this journey and their massive support duly guided. They were super excited about the news when they saw it and we all know that one cannot get far without the support of the family. I am grateful for the friends and supporters that continually show up for me, I remember on the night I was declared the winner my phone kept buzzing, from messages to calls and even emails it is really amazing having their support people and I can't stop saying thank you.

IN YOUR WORDS, WHAT DO YOU THINK STOOD YOU OUT FROM THE OTHER CONTESTANTS?

I didn't do anything special from the other contestants but I'd say -Firstly I'd say my charisma and gentility favored me along the way.

-Secondly whenever I was given the opportunity to speak, especially about the various challenges in our society today, I genuinely spoke from my heart without fear or fervor.

-Also my "never say die" attitude put me in a good stead to win.

WHO WAS YOUR BIGGEST COMPETITION IN MISTER MODEL NIGERIA PAGEANT?

Well every one my fellow contestants were a tough competition I can't point anyone in particular. Everyone brought their A game and also came to win, the good thing was that we all fed off each other's energy even though we were competing for the same thing.

TELL US ABOUT THE EXPERIENCE SINCE YOU WERE CROWNED?

Since I won, a lot has changed personally for me. I've now been vested with lot of responsibilities and I definitely have to carry myself as a king, it's a whole new chapter for me and one I've embraced with open arms.

HOW DO YOU INTEND TO USE THIS NEW OFFICE TO MAKE AN IMPACT IN SOCIETY?

Thank you for that question, as a king there's a lot to do in my society - firstly I'd be involved in a lot of volunteering work for causes such as; awareness about mental health, educating people (men especially) about rape and its ills in our society, breast cancer awareness just to mention but a few.

-secondly, I'd be advocating for educational reforms in Nigeria.
-thirdly, I want to change the negative media about Africa and Africans and let the world know how amazing we are as a people. These are just a few of the projects on my must do list.

IF YOU WERE NOT A MODEL, WHAT OTHER CAREER WOULD YOU HAVE PURSUED?

If I wasn't a model, there a quite a few things I would have been doing. I definitely would have delved into the corporate world; I would have been offering legal services.

WHO IS YOUR ROLE MODEL?

My father, chief Marcel Okeke is always my role model he has always lived an exemplary life and I wish to walk the same path as we

JINGLE THEN AND JINGLE NOW

Growing up, we danced to the jingle of Christmas bell. The new clothes, the shoes with light to show off with friends, we dream of the D-Day to come so to appear new in front of our mates. We were so innocent, so pure hearted, moving from house to house, eating and dining with neighbors, all with love. We were showered with drinks and gifts, some would go in to give us #5, #10, #20, we take all with joyful hearts and running off to our parents to show off our gifts. All these, we did with love. I call it JINGLE THEN

Time had changed, life became more tough and hard. We forget our values and communal living. No child of today runs out with Christmas clothes and shoes to show off. Hatred and jealousy show cased. A child glimpses at other child's wear and make faces to show how bitter the soul is, already. Love departed, there is no going from places to places to dine and merry with them. The parents would say "Mama Chinedu is bad, o gbaranjo (Chinedu's mother is evil). Do not go to their house, they are wicked, they possess witch craft" Our minds and theirs, being spoilt with, "They are after you, they want to kill you, in the village". I call this JINGLE NOW!

Then, come to think of it, is Christmas not of love, love that took flesh and dwelt among us (Jn 1 vs 3). It reminds you to call on all loved ones and merry would go round. Today people tend to celebrate Christmas with outsiders than their loved ones. They gift outsiders and their loved ones and relatives wallow in sorrows and hunger because they are being brain washed that the poor relatives are after their progress, thereby abandoning them. Our love, thus lost.

The communal living amongst us are already shattered because of fear of the unknown and terrors of heart. Love is lost and so is Christmas. Where is that merry and love that existed then? Where are the packs of food gathered from neighbors to merry? Why is the Christmas love lost? Why is our soul filled with bitterness? Life was much easier than now. Everyone is scared to eat with family and prefer eating with a friend outside because love is indeed lost in family and in the society. Please dear friends, let's make life much easier for us by giving out happiness like rose flower which puts smiles on the gardener every morning as it shines forth.

As I am now, even though my researches as a youth, love can never bring war or hatred, but always peace and harmony. Instead of being envious about others prosperity, let us remember that in rejoicing with others we are lifted. The have nots around us should be remembered because love shared is love gained, which has been the reason behind " There is love in sharing". Let us live love out in this Christmas and beyond. With this, our bell will jingle as then without much stress to oneself. Let us Make love to go viral.

Dedicated to our families, childhood and childhood friends and the memories we shared then.

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH
FAST-RISING AFROBEAT SENSATION
TRIQA BLU

YOU RECENTLY RELEASED EP HAS BEEN WELL RECEIVED AND IS DOING GREAT IN ALL MUSIC PLATFORMS. HOW DO YOU FEEL?

A: I feel amazing being a part of a new Afro sound. I am very happy about its acceptance by the Afro beats fans.

WHICH IS YOUR FAVORITE TRACK?

A: I love all tracks on my EP. Although I have more streams on track 2 "Ten Over Ten"

SO, WHAT WAS YOUR DRIVE BEHIND MAKING MUSIC?

A: Basically the ability to use my God's given talent to produce melody. I couldn't run away from Music, I was born with it and to do it.

HOW DID YOUR CAREER AS AN ARTISTE UNFOLD?

A: Back in 2020 when I put out my first collabo with King Perry.

WHAT ROADBLOCKS DID YOU FACE WHEN YOU WERE STARTING OUT?

A: School and my Job. It was really difficult balancing music with school and work. It was like serving 3 masters lol

WHO WERE THE BIGGEST INSPIRATIONS FOR YOUR CAREER?

A: That would be my producers "Popilo" and "Justee" who I've worked with for 5 years. Training and building up to how good I've become.

WHICH PARTICULAR ARTISTE(S) HAS INFLUENCED YOU THE MOST, AND WHY?

A: I would say, MJ (Michael Jackson) because of the amount of work he put into every song just to entertain and paint a melodic picture.

WHICH SONG(S) HAS INSPIRED YOU THE MOST, AND WHY?

A: I listen a very vast array of songs down to metal, rock and calypso. I have a few favorites but I tend derive inspiration from every song I come across.

WHAT ARE YOU MOST PASSIONATE ABOUT IN YOUR CAREER AS AN ARTISTE?

A: Serenading my audience with my type of music and style of music which is next to none.

WHICH OF YOUR STAGE PERFORMANCE WAS THE MOST CHALLENGING FOR YOU?

A: That would be my performance at "Buju live in concert". Performing in front of thousands of people with wiz kid & burma boy watching from backstage.

HOW DO YOU MANAGE YOUR FEMALE FANS?

A: My girls are the best and we have our vibe lol. We love each other lol

IN YOUR OPINION, WHAT IS THE MOST VITAL QUALITY AN ARTISTE SHOULD POSSESS?

A: Originality

WHAT HAS BEEN YOUR BIGGEST CHALLENGE AS AN ARTISTE?

A: Promoting music has been my major obstacle. Being independent and competing with labels cost a lot. We thank God for the success so far.

TELL US ABOUT ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL MOMENTS IN YOUR CAREER.

A: That would be recording with King Perry. 2 power horses in one room. The heat was maaad lol.

AS AN ARTISTE, WAS IT HARDER TO GET STARTED OR TO KEEP GOING? AND WHAT WAS THE PARTICULAR THING YOU HAD TO DO TO CONQUER IT?

A: "Keep going". That took alot of resilience haha.

WHAT WAS THE MOST IMPORTANT LESSON YOU HAD TO LEARN THAT HAS HAD POSITIVE EFFECT ON YOUR CAREER?

A: The best way to do something is to do it yourself.

WHAT MAKES A GOOD SONG?

A: The production and composition. They both have to have a paranormal synchronization.

WHAT IS YOUR TAKE ON NIGERIAN ARTISTE BEING AN INSTRUMENT OF CHANGE IN THE COUNTRY?

A: An Artiste has the most powerful influence on mankind. Artistes are a major shortcut to the hearts of the people (fans)

IS THE MUSIC BUSINESS IN NIGERIA FAIR? WHY OR WHY NOT? HOW DO YOU MAKE THE APPARATUS WORK FOR YOU?

A: It has its own unique monopoly. Once you understand it and have the right capital, technique and song. Jackpot!!!

ANY PROJECT(S) COMING UP SOON?

A: Yes, my first song is the heat drops on the 18th of February. It's the first time I'll be doing a love/sexy song and it's one of my best works so far.

IF THERE IS ONE THING YOU THINK WILL MAKE THE MUSIC INDUSTRY IN NIGERIA BETTER, WHAT WOULD IT BE?

A: Definitely More Investors. The industry is filled with a lot of amazing talents.

WHAT IS THE MOST IMPORTANT ADVICE YOU CAN GIVE AN ARTISTE STARTING OUT?

A: Be Prayerful. Only God knows how you go blow.

WHAT ARE YOUR SOCIAL HANDLES FOR PEOPLE THAT WOULD LOVE TO CONNECT WITH YOU?

A: "@triqua_blu" on every platform

FINAL WORDS:

2022 is sure to be my breakout year by God's grace. I would keep flooding your ears with amazing melodies and I pray that your support for me would never waver but increase. Triqa signing out!!
