EDITOR'S LETTER

Welcome to the 32nd edition February 2024 special issue of Fourwall Magazine featuring Nkasiobi Nnyamah, Miss Ideal Nigeria 1st Princess 2022 and Abanobi Emmanuel, Founder PrinceGlam Empire.

In a world that constantly urges us to compare ourselves with others, it's essential to remember that each one of us walks a different path. Our journey is uniquely ours, shaped by our experiences, passions, and dreams. In this edition, we celebrate the spirit of individuality and delve into stories that inspire us to compete not with others, but with ourselves.

Our cover personalities exemplify the beauty of self-competition, sharing how they find fulfilment by measuring their progress against their own goals rather than comparing themselves to others. In a candid interview, they reveal their secrets to winning pageant and proving that true success lies in pursuing our personal best. Let us remind ourselves that our journey is our own.

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH QUEEN NKASIOBI NNYAMAH
MISS IDEAL NIGERIA 1ST PRINCESS 2022

TELL US ABOUT YOURSELF?

My name is Nkasi, born on 12th November. I'm the only daughter with three brothers.

I hail from Igbere in Bende Local Government Area, Abia. With a formal education in Applied microbiology and Brewing (B.sc) and currently studying public health(M.sc).

HOW DID YOUR JOURNEY INTO THE BEAUTY PAGEANTRY BEGUN?

My journey in beauty pageant started when my roommates in Esut (ROOM 227) kept referring to me as Miss world or Miss Nigeria, I'd wear heels in the room and keep cat walking, started wondering what it would look like contesting and next thing I started contesting.

WHAT WERE THE CHALLENGES YOU FACED DURING THE CONTEST AND HOW YOU OVERCAME THEM?

In as much as I had all the support I needed from family and friends, one of the challenges I faced was the height difference with other contestants but the major challenge at the time was having skin reaction as a result of bad water, I kept having crazy breakouts and hot face. Each time we had to come out for anything I got worried, and I didn't know what skincare products to use as I had never tried any and the ones, I tried wasn't going well for me, but thank God for brands like Rockas empire, ordinary and ceravee. For the height, there was nothing much to do so I had to give it all my best.

WHAT WOULD YOU SAY STOOD YOU OUT FROM OTHERS?

I'd say my confidence stood out for me, also my traditional attire also played a role (designed Prince glam).

HOW WAS THE BONDING WITH OTHER CONTESTANTS?

I met the most amazing talented young women in camp. We behaved like sisters and even at a point forgot we were in a competition. It was amazing seeing ladies aspire to do great and make a difference and I'm glad I met them, and we still communicate.

SHARE WITH US YOUR EXPERIENCE DURING THE MISS IDEAL CONTEST?

Hmmm, Miss Ideal Nigeria, my experience is beyond words Miss Ideal Nigeria marked a journey of self-discovery and empowerment. Right from the day I applied to the interview, voting each step thought me something new. It gave an opportunity to give back to community even before the queen's hive. During the Queen's hive, the staff and team members were so amazing that they'd take your problem as theirs and see you through it. I for one had challenges getting my gowns and costume(I literally kept crying.) and next thing I'm seeing plans being made. The games and dinner nights we had gave me an opportunity to also bond with other contestants. Miss Ideal Nigeria gave me a chance to speak up on important issues, making me feel empowered and responsible. Each stage of the competition revealed my resilience and grace. It also gave me a opportunity to meet High Profiled Individuals that I never thought or imagined I'd meet. Miss Ideal thought me that winning or not, the real victory was the lessons learned, personal growth, and unforgettable memories and above all having a family that would be there for you, a family like House of Twitch. Miss Ideal Nigeria wasn't just a pageant; it transformed me into a more confident woman with a clear purpose.

HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN INTO MODELING?

I started in 2017/2018 after I graduated from school, though I wasn't consistent then but yeah that was when the flare for it started, so that should be roughly 5 years.

HOW DID WINNING THIS PAGEANT IMPACTED IN YOUR LIFE?

Becoming Miss Ideal Nigeria 1st Princess played a pivotal role in my personal growth over the past years. I've undergone a significant transformation, starting with my current role as the Vice President of Miss Ideal Nigeria. This journey altered my perspective on life and instilled in me a strong desire to achieve more. The crown opened doors to numerous opportunities, allowing me to connect with amazing people globally, attend events and lots more.

HAS BEEN A BEAUTY QUEEN EVER CLASHED WITH YOUR PERSONALITY?

No, it hasn't. It gave me a platform to showcase myself and personality.

WHAT PROJECTS DID YOU EMBARKED ON DURING YOUR REIGN?

During my reign, I didn't embark on any new project, I focused on sustaining ongoing initiatives rather than initiating new projects. This included the continued effort to raise awareness about hepatitis B, along with providing financial support for the education of underprivileged children by covering their school fees. These people have decided not to made known to anyone or have their pictures online.

WHAT DOES THE SASH AND CROWN SYMBOLIZE TO YOU?

The crown and sash in a beauty pageant mean a lot to me. They represent a journey of growth and responsibility. The crown shows the duties and challenges that come with the title, highlighting the inner strength needed. The sash is a symbol of honor, signifying a commitment to helping others and making a positive impact. Overall, they go beyond just looking good – they represent a chance to inspire and take on meaningful roles.

HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOUR JOURNEY AS THE MISS IDEAL NIGERIA 1ST PRINCESS?

My journey as Miss Ideal Nigeria 1st Princess has been an amazing one, being Miss Ideal Nigeria 1st Princess has transformed a once-distant dream into a tangible reality, and the honor I feel is profound as I've embraced grace, confidence, and elegance throughout this exceptional journey. It's been a journey of self-discovery, responsibility, and making a positive impact, shaping me into a more empowered and purpose-driven woman. The role has not only allowed me to evolve personally but has also granted me the opportunity to be a source of inspiration and empowerment for others, making this journey truly fulfilling and I'm grateful for it.

WHAT IS YOUR VISION FOR THE SOCIETY AND WHAT IMPACT HAVE YOU MADE?

My vision for society centers on creating a community where every individual is valued and empowered. My goal is to leave a lasting impact by encouraging others to join in building a society where diversity is celebrated, and everyone has the chance to speak and be themselves.

HOW WOULD YOU DEFINE YOUR PERSONAL STYLE?

Explaining my personal style is like an ongoing adventure since I'm still figuring it out. I like a mix of classic elegance and what's in fashion now. I have fun trying different styles, playing with colors, and getting inspired by various fashion ideas. I haven't settled on a specific style yet, but the exciting part is being flexible and changing things up as my tastes grow.

HOW DO YOU RELAX AS YOU ARE QUITE BUSY WITH DIFFERENT ENGAGEMENTS?

I sleep, and take ice cream...lol. I actually unwind by indulging in activities like listening to soothing music, visiting friends, and spending quality time with loved ones, and of course partying...lol. These little things allow me to recharge and approach my busy engagements with renewed energy and focus

WHO IS YOUR IDEAL LIFE PARTNER?

Really, tall sexy young man....just kidding. I envision my ideal life partner as someone who aligns with my values, demonstrates genuine kindness, and complements both my strengths and weaknesses and who is God-fearing. Effective communication, trust, and a shared sense of humor are key. Above all, I seek a supportive and loving partnership, where we can not only grow individually but also navigate life as a united team. But has to be tall please.

WHICH BRANDS ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO WORK WITH?

I look forward to working with brands like Zaron, Sleek makeup , Omaricode, Huda and Channel for skin and make up. For fashion brand, I'd love to Tiffany Amber, Zerefashion, Alexander McQueen and Channel. I'm also open to any other brand.

WHERE DO YOU SEE YOURSELF IN THE NEXT 5 YEARS?

In five years, I envision myself with my family having made significant strides in my career, possibly taking on leadership roles that allow me to contribute meaningfully. I see continued personal growth, deepening my involvement in philanthropy or advocacy work, and maintaining a healthy work-life balance. Whether it's in my professional pursuits or personal development, I aim to embrace new challenges and opportunities, fostering a fulfilling and purpose-driven life.

WHAT MESSAGE DO YOU HAVE FOR YOUNG LADIES ASPIRING TO BECOME A BEAUTY QUEEN?

To young ladies aspiring to become beauty queens, I would say: Embrace your uniqueness, cultivate inner strength, and stay true to your values. Pursue your passions, be resilient in the face of challenges, and use your platform to make a positive impact. Remember, being a beauty queen goes beyond appearance—it's about embodying grace, intelligence, and compassion. Believe in yourself, and let your journey inspire others to reach for their dreams with confidence and authenticity. Also don't forget with or without a crown, you're always a queen

SKINCARE ESSENTIAL

What Is Niacinamide?

Niacinamide is a form of vitamin B3 that helps to soothe redness, reduce hyperpigmentation and aid in hydration, per the National Center for Biotechnology Information (NCBI). The great thing about topical niacinamide is that it has minimal side effects, per the NCBI. Furthermore, Dr. Henry recommends the ingredient for its soothing and anti-inflammatory properties, and for those with sensitive skin. “It contributes to moisturizing the skin, and it also contributes to fortifying the skin barrier and reducing inflammation,” she says.

What Is Vitamin C?

Vitamin C is an antioxidant known for its brightening and anti-aging abilities in topical skin care applications, per the NCBI. There’s a good chance you already use a vitamin C serum or moisturizer in your morning routine to fight hyperpigmentation and dullness. There are many different forms of vitamin C found in topical skin care; L-ascorbic acid is vitamin C in its strongest and purest form, and it’s highly effective in topical skin care applications, per the NCBI.

Can You Use Niacinamide With Vitamin C?

For years, it was recommended to use niacinamide and vitamin C in separate routines because vitamin C formulations weren’t always stable, Dr. Henry says. Furthermore, per the Indian Dermatology Online Journal, when a vitamin C formula isn’t stable, it’s not as effective on the skin, and when you pair it with certain ingredients, like niacinamide, that can make both ingredients ineffective. Vitamin C serums can become unstable when the formula is exposed to air and sunlight. A good indication that your vitamin C serum is no longer stable is if it becomes a dark, amber color.

Today, formulations have improved and sometimes, niacinamide can be successfully paired with vitamin C, but you really have to pay attention to the products you’re using. In fact, it’s highly situational, but your best chance is to use vitamin C serum and niacinamide serum formulated to be used together. L’Oréal Paris recommends using L’Oréal Paris Revitalift Derm Intensives 12% Pure Vitamin C + E + Salicylic Acid Serum and L’Oréal Paris Bright Reveal 12% [Niacinamide + Amino Sulfonic + Ferulic Acid] Dark Spot Serum in the same routine to target dullness and dark spots. This way, you can confidently use both in the same regimen because the brand has formulated them with the intention to pair if needed.

AN INTERVIEW WITH

ABANOBI EMMANUEL

FASHION STYLIST
& FOUNDER
PRINCEGLAM
EMPIRE

NICE HAVING YOU HERE, TELL US ABOUT YOURSELF AND YOUR CAREER SO FAR?

Hi my name is Emmanuel Abanobi IFECHUKWUDERE. I hail from anambra state. I am the first of 4 boys and a graduate of theatre and film studies from the prestigious University of Nigeria Nsukka. I am social, friendly and outspoken. My love for arts was birthed right from my teenage age especially from the church. I was in the church's drama unit and choir and was always given a major role along side decorating the church with my mum.

It just didn't end in church activities, I was a social bee both in my primary and secondary school leading the school dance and drama team for every end of the year party. Art has been an integral part of my life and choosing a career part in it wasn't a difficult one at all. Studying theatre arts at the university brought a meeting point to all of my talents and it fashioned the birth of prince glam empire. Ps I was also a pageant king in my first year in school (MR FACULTY OF ARTS UNN 2017). Right after my pageant I watched YouTube videos on makeup and started practicing that same year while designing costumes for pageant student on campus and outside my university. So far it has been an amazing 6 years of professionally designing different national and international costumes, beauty makeup, special effect makeup, film costume design and overall beauty consultancy. Bagging over 15 awards nationally, the brand has grown rapidly and I am excited for all that is to come.

WHAT INSPIRED YOU BECOMING A FASHION STYLIST?

Honestly, I grew up in a very fashionable home. My mum would always handle the beautification of our local church and choir uniforms by herself while my dad on the other hand sold clothes at Lagos island while we were growing up. His combinations every Sunday to church was always a turn head style and this influenced i and my brothers sense of fashion. Having this amazing background further reflected on my personal style growing up. I found myself recommending looks for my friends cos I was always updated with the latest in town. Fast forward to after my competition in school and winning the faculty most handsome tittle, I had students who wanted to pay me to fix up their look for their pageants and birthday shoot along side rendering makeup services and this gave birth to all the styling services we offer today across all fashion spaces.

HOW DO YOU DETERMINE A CLIENT'S PERSONAL STYLE?

There is always a consultation stage. Here I get to listen to the clients needs. Most times they come without a clue of what they want and it is my duty to present trendy and recent designs to them while we both make the final decision of what the final look should be. On the other hand, some of my clients already have their desired designs in mind, it's left for me to modify or advice them on their take looking at their body structures and event in view. At the end of the day, they are carried along every step of the way till the final result is achieved. My styling services isn't just the clothing alone, I creatively decide hair, makeup , accessories, photography. No part of the creative process in achieving these looks is left behind cos it has to be an ensemble.

CAN YOU DESCRIBE YOUR STYLE AND HOW IT INFLUENCES YOUR WORK AS A FASHION STYLIST?

Well, my personal style most times comes from my mood and what event is in view. Personally i have always loved bright , silky , simple plain and pattern fabrics and design. All of these is on a personal note but when it comes to Princeglam styling, I am often referred to as the "Drama". This is so because I love to always want to make a remembered statement look . Take my costumes for instance, they are well detailed and this creates a long lasting mental picture. I think far away from the norm cos that's one beautiful secret to standing out. So generally, my style is bold, edgy , colorful and sensational (I love it sexy too).

WHAT IS THE MOST IMPORTANT THING FOR YOU WHEN STYLING A MODEL?

The most important thing for me when styling a model most times is creative freedom while working for a model or client. Having a vast experience and knowledge about styling enables me to see beyond just the now in every piece. Most time, these models wants to pick up an identity or rather look like someone else when their body doesn't give the same fitting or proportion. At this junction it is my soul duty as the stylist to give a candid creative advice and look for befitting alternatives to make the piece come alive, adequately highlighting all that is needed.

ARE THERE ANY SPECIFIC FASHION DESIGNERS OR STYLISTS, WHO HAVE SIGNIFICANTLY IMPACTED YOUR WORK AND STYLE?

Yes most definitely but top on the list is my late boss who I learned under, Henry OKONKWO. He was one of Nigerian finest exports in traditional and creative costumes and really drilled me in becoming who I am today. Love you Biggy. Moving on, Millicent jack and Adeola Ogunjobi have both been a big inspiration when it comes to styling for movies because I've worked with them on big productions like blood vessel and Hijack respectively and these woman really understand the styling job like the back of their palm. On a General note, I pick inspiration from any work of art I encounter because no man is an island. We create to keep inspiring directly or indirectly.

WHAT DO YOU HOPE TO ACHIEVE IN YOUR CAREER? ANY DREAM PROJECTS OR GOALS YOU'D LIKE TO SHARE?

Honestly, the Goal has been to create timeless fashion pieces that will stand the taste of time and gradually I am equipping myself to get to that point. Also, I want to be able to win international best national costume design from my empire exalting our cultural root and identity. The goal is to make both national and global impact through my craft, inspiring others believing in their own craft when they look at me and hear my story. For now, one of my major projects I'm view is proper archiving of these national costumes at a very big museum in Nigeria because come rain come shine, it is history made and needs to be preserved. So I'll be working with a ministry of culture and tourism in the country to see that this is done very soon.

HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOUR PERSONAL STYLE?

My personal style is bold, edgy, glam and extra. I am mostly referred to as THE DRAMA. I honestly want heads to turn and not just look but appreciate what ever I create and feel themselves in each piece.

CAN YOU TELL US MORE ABOUT PRINCEGLAM EMPIRE?

PrinceglamEmpire was born out of numerous components. Initially it was just prince glam because all I offered at that point was just makeup services but as time went by, I added styling, branding , communications , talent grooming and now lash extensions to what we offer. With all of this additions and more , we hope to become a globally recognized brand knows for all ART can give cos that's the root form of its origin. Currently we are available to travel for all your pageant needs, personal styling , makeup upgrade service including special effect makeup, film styling service, tv commercials, NGO partnerships and many more. The goal is to keep redefining beauty at its peak.

WHICH BRAND WOULD YOU LOVE TO DO A STYLING FOR?

Honestly I don't have a particular brand in mind right now. I am open to all form of jobs and collaboration so long they fall within our job specifications. But a huge shout out to Idia Aisien, this lady is phenomenal and her style resonates with me soooo well, I honestly can't wait to create timeless magic with her. She embodies every single look.

WHAT WORK ARE YOU MOST PROUD OF?

Honestly I am grateful for my beginning and I am honestly excited for now and can't wait to feel fulfilment for tomorrow. All my jobs have been a testament of hard work, passion and Gods grace and I am proud of each and every piece created, look crafted and decision made. Currently I did a national costume ROMBOROMBO that made headlines across the country Because of its endearing message. I hope to keep creating this pieces and each of them speaking loudly for itself.

WHERE DO YOU SEE YOUR BRAND IN THE NEXT FIVE YEARS?

In the next 5 years , princeglam will continue to lead in creative styling and production. Honestly it a tough road ahead but with God, we will have a hit back to back and keep serving to the needs of our clients while making global and lasting impacts with the story these pieces tell.

HOW DO YOU RELAX?

When I am not in my elements creating designs or offering services, I am usually in my room singing or stylishly learning something new. I love travelling a lot and sightseeing. I eat well enough and sleep to always rekindle myself. I also do not play with my quiet time and my place with God.

ASIDE STYLING, WHAT OTHER SERVICES DO YOU OFFER?

Asides styling , I am a makeup artist, lash extension artist, communications coach, pageant chaperone, talent manager and an event coordinator.

WHAT HAS BEEN THE MOST MEMORABLE MOMENT OF YOUR CAREER SO FAR?

The most memorable moment has been anytime an international delegate wears my design and during the descriptions my name is mention as the designer, I feel some type of positive rush in my veins. It's always beautiful seeing your imagination take actual shape. That alone is memorable and fulfilling.

WHAT'S NEXT FOR YOU THIS YEAR?

This year, I'll honestly just say watch out cos I am a well of infinite possibilities. Thank you

JOY ODINU

THE NEXT SUPERMODEL!

My name is Odinu Joy, popularly know as JD. I'm from Imo state based in Abuja. A fashion, commercial, face and brand model.

I started modeling 24th May 2021. I enrolled in Onyx Modelz, graduated as a professional model then decided to become a freelance model. I've struggled to be where I am today with a lot of training and encouragement from my friends and family. It's hasn't been easy i worked day and night, under rain and sun to be at this position right now. I'm still pushing myself to becoming a better and professional model.

Fashion is something that has always intrigued me, the statement it makes without a word being uttered and this is why I love modeling or as a i jokingly call it; play dress up.

Modeling is my way of expressing myself through fashion, bringing to life the many unique creation of designers.

My driving force has been to give voice and to speak the language of fashion with my body, I have worked with photographers in creating ideas and concepts that tells stories especially in the area of Africa culture. I have also modeled for fashion brands.

BILLIE SMOLSY

Billie Smolsy came to our Melbourne studio back in 2017 for her first ever photo shoot. Right away we recognized huge modelling potential in the Ballarat-born beauty. She was a complete natural in front of the camera and took direction from her photographer Hana like she had been modelling for years. Billie Smolsy has since gone on to sign with IMG Models and is on her way to becoming a global superstar!

CHARLOTTE ALLEN

I came across Teen Model Australia on Instagram and noted that many other teen models follow them. They showcase teens and tweens on social media and in their magazines in a great positive light. It's a competitive industry, but they have a supportive and age-appropriate vibe. They hold regular competitions and know a lot about the industry. By being selected as one of their ambassadors, I hope that I will grow my network and be noticed within Australia and maybe even overseas!

INTERVIEWING TIPS FOR A MODELING CAREER.

Working through an agency is the most common way for a model to get work. Doing well in a modeling interview is key to getting your foot in the door. Whether you were contacted by the agency or are going in on your own accord, you need to present yourself in the best light to make a lasting impression. This means you'll have to rely on more than just your good looks to ace the interview. Prepare with our interviewing tips for a modeling career!

Do Your Research

Research the agency, so you know what kind of models they represent as well as what their body style, portfolio, and other requirements are. This ensures you fit the criteria and are well-prepared for the interview. Many agencies put this information on their website, but you can also call them.

Prepare a Portfolio

A portfolio is one of the most effective tools an aspiring model has. Agencies may specify the number and type of photos you need to have in your portfolio. The minimum is generally one portrait photo and one in upright body position. You can also include simple poses such as sitting, profile and looking over your shoulder. You usually don't have to smile, but you may wish to have some pictures with varying facial expressions to show versatility. The clothing you wear should be tight-fitting, such as swimwear, tank tops, and skinny jeans. Do not wear any make-up in the shots, as the agency needs to see how you look completely natural.

Prepare a Resume

This document provides the interviewer with the most pertinent information about you at-a-glance. It contains information on your past modeling work, any training as an actor or any awards. Also a list of shows or publications you've appeared in, as well as any educational background you have in fashion or a related field. You can also include your body measurements, including height, weight, bust, waist, hips, inseam, dress size and shoe size. Some agencies though require you to put this information in a separate document called a "comp card".

Take Care of Your Appearance

Your hair, nails, and skin must be clean, neat and free of blemishes. You will want to look as natural as possible, so use a sparing amount of make-up. This may include a little bit of foundation, mascara, eye shadow, and lip gloss.

Practice Modeling

The interviewer will assess how well you pose and walk, so practice beforehand to make sure you've at least got the basics down. Watch videos and look in magazines to get ideas for poses, facial expressions and how to walk a runway. Try things out in a mirror to make sure it looks good, then ask family members and friends to watch and give you some pointers. Practice maintaining your composure in any situation.

Think of Answers to Common Questions

Modeling interviews usually involve some standard questions. These most often include questions about how long you've been modeling, any especially notable shows or publications you've appeared in. It may also be about the type of modeling you want to do (e.g. commercial, fashion, etc.), and why you want to work with that particular agency.

7 STYLING TIPS FOR CURVE MODELS

2. Define your waist

Cinching waists helps to project a slimmer waistline and provides an hourglass figure. It is recommended to wear high waist belts for shorter people, as it will elongate their overall appearances and make their legs look longer. Tuck the belts with loose fitted fabric to avoid the “bulging effect”. Avoid wearing thick belts as it can bring attention to the width of a person, which completely defeats the purpose of the cinched effect.

3. Avoid rounded toe shoes

Often rounded shoes can have the impact of making anyone look shorter. A look overall can be elongated by wearing pointed or open toe shoes. This will make the legs look longer and well-balanced.

4. Utilise strategic Patterns

Patterns can be a tricky matter when it comes to balancing an overall look. Bold coloured, thick patterns can give the impression of a different body size and can bring attention to the wrong body parts. Whereas, smaller and darker coloured patterns can complement the style and the form. For example, smaller polka dots can make the figure look a lot more flattering than bigger ones.

5. V Necks are the Best

V neck tops can elongate the appearance of the waist. V neck tops can help direct focus from any problematic area to the bust area. This can also make the look more feminine and playful.

6. High Waist Bottoms compliment anyone's figure!

High waisted pants or skirts with pointed or open-toe shoes are often great pairs that elongate the look, beautifully. To complete the look, wear a semi-fitted top which ends on the waistline if not slightly under.

With the modelling industry adapting and changing every day, the demand for curve models is increasing. The “body positivity” movement has prompted agencies and industry to start to embrace bodies of all shapes and sizes. Therefore, everyone has a chance to celebrate their bodies, both in and out of the industry!

With the curve modelling sector growing and changing, so is the clothing industry and people are becoming a lot more aware of what clothing suits their body type.

1. Ensure you get your sizing right

It is important to wear the “right size” clothing. Try avoiding wearing sizes that are too small for the body, as it accentuates the wrong areas. On the other hand, wearing loose clothes can make you give a wrong impression of your overall body structure and sizing. The better the sizing, the more flattering it looks. That being said, when shopping feel free to try out different sizes of clothes, as a lot of brands are known to have different clothing sizes under the universal size numbers.
